

A Most Remarkable Price Reduction Sale of Ladies' Suits

It is very unusual that we place such a large assortment of Ladies' Tailored Suits at such sharp reductions. The prices we have these seasonable garments marked offer an opportunity for the thrifty inclined shoppers to purchase a good big money's worth of value.

Values up to $22.50,
Now $15.00

$25.00 Values, now $17.50

These Suits at $15.00 and $17.50 are particularly fine. Suppose you see them and satisfy yourself regarding them! You will find the style exactly right; in other words, they are the modes of the moment, suitable not only for immediate wear, but for weeks to come. Then the price—$15.00 and $17.50—think of it: Wool Serges, Poplins, Gabardines and Mixtures, fur trimmed, braid trimmed and trimmed with velvet; beautiful tailored garments. If thrift means anything, it means the seizing of just such opportunities as this.

THE NEW FURS are receiving their share of attention. Furs are advancing in price daily, but ours were fortunately bought early in the summer and are being sold at the old prices. Buy early and take the advantage of this opportunity.

We Have New Coats

arriving almost every day. They are the very last word in Coats and made up in the latest models, of the new materials, like Plush, Velour, Velvet Corduroy and Mixtures. These garments are being priced surprisingly low and will certainly meet with your instant approval.

ONE ODD LOT OF LADIES' AND MISSES' COATS (not this season's), almost given away.

Price only $2.98 Each

Ladies' Coats at only $5.98

In this lot are many very desirable Coats and are garments that were worth many times this low price. These are not this season's Coats. If you want to buy a good Coat cheap, see them.

We urge an early selection on your part, because values like these cannot last.

With a good singing chorus, fine dancing, magnificent wardrobe, new songs and new jokes, the Watson Musical Comedy company opened up a week's engagement at the Pavilion theatre last evening. The theatre was crowded and from the spontaneous applause it was evident that the songsters had made a hit from the start. Besides their regular program they present several acts of vaudeville. The regular picture program is carried out as usual—adv.

Last evening about 25 ladies of the L. A. A. O. H. called unexpectedly upon Mrs. Bert Humphrey. Most of the guests were masked and their arrival brought some wonderment to the hostess. There was music and dancing and a most delightful evening was spent. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served. In behalf of those present, Mrs. Nora Good, division president, presented Mrs. Humphrey a handsome leather handbag. Mrs. Humphrey responded, thanking the guests for their gift. The event was in the nature of a housewarming and was in charge of Mrs. Allen Morrison and Mrs. Bessie Williams.

John Belleu of Winchester, Mass., arrived this morning and will make a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Clark and other relatives in the city. Mrs. Belleu and daughter, who have been visiting in the city for the past month, will accompany Mr. Belleu to their home in Winchester next week.

Fred W. Suitor, secretary and treasurer of the Quarry Workers' International Union of North America, left to-day for San Francisco, where he will represent the union at a convention of the American Federation of Labor to be held in that city November 8. The convention will meet for two weeks. Mr. Suitor will visit several other cities on the way out in the interests of the quarry workers.

Seniors of Spaulding high school in the teachers' training course are planning a play to be given at the auditorium during the first of next month. It will be sort of a novelty in that it is to be written by one of the members of the class. Different members of the class are now being chosen for parts and as soon as arranged, rehearsals will commence.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles F. Kenyon of Williamstown have sold their farm in that town, located one and one-half miles from the village to Mr. and Mrs. Eetus Trombley of Washington, who recently disposed of their property there. Mr. and Mrs. Trombley will take immediate possession and Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon plan to sell their personal property at public auction. The deal was consummated through the local office of the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency.

A horse driven, it is said, by Elmer Hoyland of East Montpelier took fright at the C. V. train this morning as his driver was about to hitch him near the Allen Lumber Co.'s office on Depot square. The rate of speed which the horse acquired around the curves on to North Main street would soon have taken him home but for some reason he changed his mind opposite the Union Clothing Co.'s store and allowed himself to be caught by bystanders. The horse has often been stalled at Jones and Nye's stable and it was suggested by his driver that this might have been the reason why he was stopped so easily.

B. V. S. VARNISH

For woodwork, floors and outside surfaces, does not scratch or mar white. Heavy pieces of furniture moved across the floor merely dent the finish, but it will not crack or show white streaks. The floors will not have to be re-finished so often if done with B. V. S. Varnish. Drop in and get one of our Test Paddles, finished with B. V. S. Varnish; it is a sound argument on varnish values, which speaks volumes.
